The Farmers & Traders Bank of Anamosa,

Gentlemen:

A gentleman by the name of Peter Bock refers us to you as his reference and we want to know his standing and reliability. He asks for coins on approval to the amount of about $200 or $300.

Respectfully

S. H. & H. Chapman, Jr. & Co.

Mr Bock is a gentleman of the greatest integrity and what he says goes for our bank.

He is a Swabian, a single word of how much mean I do not know, I think though you must take your chances in sending him the coins.

Yours Truly

Geo. Z. Lutz

Dear Sirs:—

Please find enclosed a ✓ draft for $11.00 for which send me a U.S. $10.00 proof coin of 1900. as per your offer. I expect to order other proof coins later.

I am not a regular coin dealer, but quite a few coins have past through my hands. Also making a collection. Now I would like for you to send me a package on approval. The coins I do not sell, I'll return to you. Put in the package several large copper cts. dates from 1793 to 1824. A Trade dol. Kill a few of each denomination, old dates. Also a few gold coins Cal. small denominations; such as $$1/4$; $1/2$ & 1.00;
Please send coins altogether & at once.

Respectfully yours.

Peter Boock.

Dear Sirs: —

On Nov. 4th I sent you a draft of $11⁰⁰ for a $10⁰⁰ gold proof coin of 1900. Also ordered a package of coins to be sent on approval. As yet, I have not received the coins nor a notice of explanation for the long delay. Nor have I received an acknowledgement that you received the money. So I address you to learn what the matter might be that you do not let me hear from you. Or if any of the letters were lost in the mail. Please let me hear from you by return mail.

Respectfully yours,

Peter Bock.

Dear Sirs: —

About four weeks ago, I ordered four gold dollars from you, but have not received them yet. I received your word that you could not find them at once, but would send soon. The parties that wanted the gold dollars are tired of waiting for them; so please cancel my order and refund the money. The amount of the order I sent you was $14.20.

Trust I'll hear from you by return mail.

Respectfully yours,

Peter Bock.
